Hoffsten)

there's nothing in this world

That hasn't got a price

A date with Lucifer

A place in paradise

Got to raise my sights

Got to stock my store

Why be satisfied

If I can get some more

Chorus:

Well it's nice doin' business

Nice doin' business with you

You better save the kisses

It's all strictly business, you fool

I don't want your love

Don't want no fake receipt

Cause what I have in mind

Is something more concrete

Don't you kiss my hand

Don't try to cop a feel

If you'll accept my terms

Then we can make a deal

Chorus

You're a bargain darling, that's a fact

You got all the stuff, both this and that (oh yeah)

Look into my face and read my lips

Let's skip all the bullshit and get down to it

Got an itch for the bottom line

I will scratch you'r back, if you'll scratch mine

(oh yeah)

It's a matter of give and take

As long all the benefits are on my plate
