It burns in my heart
And flows through my veins
I try not to feel
But I'm feeling the same
Breath in the air
Breath it in deep
These lungs feel like fire
I'm starting to sink
But you cry,
"Oh my god not this time"
When I swear
I swear I'm fine
Honestly I've been waiting for so long
For a love to come and move me on
Please move me on
They say you need to grow up soon
But don't you assume everyones staring at you
"Oh my god not this time"
When I swear
I swear I'm fine
Honestly I've been waiting for so long
For a love to come and move me on
Please move me on
And patiently I've been waiting for so long
But love died in me from holding on
Still holding on
