I need to move, I need to breathe
Shake the things that pull on me
Holding me down, slowing me down
I need to run, I need to fight
Let go of the things that I am holding onto
Maybe I need you

Just open up my eyes so I can see
It's always been there right in front of me

Roads... which one will I take?
There's a world wide open
This world wide open
Marks... which one will I make?
There's a world wide open
This world wide open

Everyday's an open page
A brand new start, a fresh clean slate
Given to me
Now it's up to me
Buy my best and lose my worst
Try to heal the things I've hurt
I need you, I know I need you

Make my mistakes and leave them in the past
Make the most of every chance I have

Roads... which one will I take?
There's a world wide open
This world wide open
Marks... which one will I make?
There's a world wide open
This world wide open

And when you grab it by the handles and dream
As it's spilling over me
As it's spilling over me...

Roads... which one will I take?
There's a world wide open
This world wide open

Marks... which one will I make?
There's a world wide open
This world wide open

Roads... which one will I take?
There's a world wide open
This world wide open
Marks... which one will I make?
There's a world wide open
This world wide open
