She wraps herself around me like a snake shes like a bad habit i cant break got a tight squeeze she wont let me go she runs my life like a pro goin down smooth like aging whine ever since i met you its been a rapid decline goin down easy like a sinking ship you got me dizzy on a never ending trip shes like a disease that i cannot cure ask everybody around shes so pure she chooses what she wants to break i dont know how much more this body can take oh

ever since i met you its been a rapid decline
truth becomes blurry love becomes hate need help in a hurry before its too late tryin to leave you the pain just doubles hanging on to you is like hanging on a bubble tryin to leave you, you make curiosity grow i know hanging on to you is like hanging onto a straw

ever since i met you its been a rapid decline goin down easy from blow after blow you see me in pain you wont let me go goin down easy like a sinking ship
goin down quick like a plane crash you cant find a bit, got me turnin into ash
