Well let me tell you darlin' I've been high most of my life,
And a dream is just a wish that a heart makes,
People used to tell me, tell me, tell me,
Just what kinda heart they were lookin' for.
Take a ride on a purple airplane,
Honey I don't know when I'll be back again.

Cause I got broken bones,
Not from the sticks and stones
But from the names that you call me.
I got broken bones,
Not from the sticks and stones
But from the names that you call me.

Hey you got the picture do you know what I mean,
I'm the fire baby and you're the gasoline.

Well let me tell you I've been high most of my life,
And a dream is just a wish that a heart makes,
People used to tell me, tell me, tell me,
Just what kinda high they were lookin' for.
Take a ride on a purple airplane,
Honey I don't know when I'll be back again.

Cause I got broken bones,
Not from the sticks and stones
But from the names that you call me.
I got broken bones
Not from the sticks and stones
But from the names that you call me.

Hey you got the picture do you know what I mean,
I'm the fire baby and you're the gasoline.

Honey I dont know when I will be back again.

Cause I got broken bones,
Not from the sticks and stones
But from the names that you call me.
I got broken bones
Not from the sticks and stones

But from the names that you call me.

Hey you got the picture do you know what I mean,
I'm the fire baby and you're the gasoline.
