I felt your cheek under my fingertips those tears mean nothing anymore for all the pain I've been handed and all the tears I have wasted I fell in love with you
you wouldn't stop to see
I fell in love with you
you wouldn't stop to see I wish I never felt you next to me then I wouldn't feel so alone

I walk through every day of my life scared to see you I never know what to say why am I in love with you you'd never appreciate I gave you all of my heart when we were together

you wouldn't stop to see your plans would never include me so why did I sacrifice myself for you
