So please tell me... why and how this came to be,
because I'm already suspicious... so very suspicious So please tell me... why and how this came to be, about a girl who so called fire, ya she so called fire...
And for everytime you really thought we'd make this through Did u ever really think that all of this would come unglued... and for everytime I knew that this would never fall through tell me why I never ever really got the clue...
She said that everything would be fine after all (x2)
So please tell me... why and how this came to be,
So please tell me... why and how this came to be, about a girl who so called fire, ya she so called fire...
And for everytime you really thought we'd make this
through
Did you ever really think that all of this would come unglued... and for everytime I knew that this would never fall through tell me why I never ever really got
the clue...
Ahh ahh ahh ahh:)
So please tell me... why and how this came to be,
a girl who so called fire, ya she so called fire...
