If you feel the same for me
The way I feel for you, I'll rush over

Your music is so very beautiful
I want to feel you creep inside me
The warmth of a kiss beneath my berry skin
I want to experience the taste of dark berry nectar, the seed of life
Heaven everlasting, the phone just won't suffice for more
My imagination is filled and my cup runneth over

If you feel the same for me
The way I feel for you, I'll rush over
There's no need to be alone
My warmth for you is rushing over

Patiently I wait for an invitation
I often try to imagine, picture you
For you're no more than a voice on my telephone
That I find myself rushing home to Your voice makes me want to do things
I'm much too shy to say, you leave me to question

If you feel the same for me
The way I feel for you, I'll rush over
There's no reason to be alone
My warmth for you is rushing over

Won't you play for me?

If you feel the same for me
The way I feel for you, I'll rush over
There's no need to be alone
My warmth for you is rushing over

My sweet Marcus, won't you play for me?
I'm rushing over
