The roses fall, Apon the grave
For a friend I could not save
Tears fall from my, Blackend eyes
Now your soul will slowley rise

Couldnt they take, Me instead
My only friend lays cold and dead

Inside I was, Hollowed out
I can not scream and I cannot shout
My words are gone, So now I cry
I wonder why he had to die

Couldnt they take, Me instead
My only friend lays cold and dead

I want him to be once more, I beg you God don't close the door
Let me come and say goodbye.

I couldnt save him, I couldnt try
Now to God I ponder why
Why the sadness, And why the shame
Why my heart has so much pain

Could'nt they take me instead
My only friend, lays cold and dead

I want him to be once more
I beg you God don't close the door
Let me come and say goodbye
This beautiful death, Is a lie
