

Love Lies In Ashes

Say your prayers, Say goodbye from this
Nothing left, But sad dreams
Deep inside, Feeling sad
In the end, there's nothing left

Tonight is our chance
Our chance to change
Change from this monster
Were more than filth
What have we become
Our hearts have changed
The pain, The suffering
And all the guilt

Deep inside, Feeling sad
There's nothing left, But sad dreams

My father
Bless my fall
