

Love Lies In Ashes "Forsaken"

Visit "Forsaken" on MotoLyrics.com

We are the forsaken, The battered and the proud
We sing a song of triumph, As our voices ring out loud
We are the forsaken, The once forgotten few
Left to wait here by the waste side
As our armies come marching through

Our smiles held like banners
Screaming up towards the sky
But still we would not falter
And still we would not die

Raise up the flag of victory
Minds and eyes turn misty grey
Remembering the blood that we she'd
In waiting for this day
