These are my dying words
Have I done anything wrong
Will I be missed and was I loved

As I lay here in my cold dark tomb
I realize that it's my eternal doom
I'm lying buried in the sand
Broken thoughts and dreams running through my head
I know, I wasn't the best I could be
In this life now meant for me
I would take it all back if I could
It's the right thing and I know I should

These are my dying words
Have I done anything wrong
Will I be missed and was I loved
These are my dying words
Have I done anything right
Will I be missed and was I loved

Each and every night I lie in pain
Pleas let me know, Will I die in vain?
I feel a cold wind go down my spine
I don't know if it's a sign
That I've done good, Or that I've done bad
I've lost everything that I've had
I'm looking through the darkness and haze
As I count down on my last days

These are my dying words
Have I done anything wrong
Will I be missed and was I loved
These are my dying words
Have I donw anythig right
Will I be missed and was I loved

My final hours have finally come
The seconds count down as I go numb
I start to feel cold it's hard to breath
The fire in my eyes start to fade away
I'm laying in the darkness, Nobody by side
On the night that I have died
