Stop

I've fought for some causes that will always stay lost
I needed to know I had a place I've thought this through this time, my place is not with you
I can't make you feel this and why would I want to?
Because

You didn't feel it then
I can't make you feel it now
I guess I was wrong
It's time to come down
It's time to come down

'Cause you didn't feel it then
I can't make you feel it now
I guess I was wrong
It's time to come down
It's time to come down

Some people hold on for so long so they don't have to start over
Even if it's bad, there's always hope, there's some time to get better
But by yourself, there's always the question of how far to go
Love's always shoved in your face and it laughs at you when you're lonely
And I'm tired of this game, no more energy to play
And I'm tired of this game, no more energy, oh

'Cause you didn't feel it then
I can't make you feel it now
I guess I was wrong
It's time to come down
It's time to come down

'Cause you didn't feel it then
I can't make you feel it now
I guess I was wrong
It's time to come down
It's time to come down

Break hearts, let them die until there's nothing left to ruin inside
'Cause if we're all broken, if we're all done, we won't want another try
No one is safe, no one is safe, no one is safe as long as we're searching
No one is safe 'cause it always ends, it always ends
Now I know that

You didn't feel it now
I can't make you feel it now
I guess I was wrong
It's time to come down
'Cause you didn't feel it then
I guess I was wrong
It's time to come down
It's time to come down

'Cause you didn't feel it then
I guess I was wrong
It's time to come down
It's time to come down

You didn't feel me, I can't make you feel me
I guess I was wrong
