

Love Lost But Not Forgotten "Perfectly Fucked"

When I sit perfectly still and perfectly fixed,
My mind is still walking and beating
Can it be perfectly fixed and perfectly still? Well, it can
I think I have finally found my devil, I know him,
He's walking and beating
I'm not surprised at all
But at least now I know, at least now I know
I know not to try very hard
Don't think I'm ever more than half serious,
Even when I'm passionate, it's unimpressive
Can it be perfectly fixed and perfectly still? Well, it can
I think I have finally found my devil, I know him,
He's walking and beating
