don't you realise
i've been eyeing for ages thousands of words to be said didn't quite come out hope you like surprises cause actions to be taken hope not to be carried out i'll never gonna get you cause i'm not even trying not even a knock on your door not even smiling when i see you right on the dot i think i like you

i think i'm in love

oh please understand i can be quite a man oh god if i had the chance i will never ever blow it how should i tell you, you're like so far away? hard to reach you well consequences, circumstances hang on there if a got lotsa questions need some answers who's gonna give me now?

i think
i like you
