tell me what the heck did i do?
do you think that i'm wild or probably i'm just your toy got stuck on the wall or a whore to you please tell me am i really your whore what is wrong with this world i might be close but i'm quite near will it be settled with blood bath? you ain't got balls
you just a damn prick

why? am i high?
some say living is part of sacrifice all my life i'm in disguise i feel like cloud with the pouring rain having it for so long but it never change as i would fall again with my aggression i leave my world behind and i know i'm in a deep depression i'd hide in the world beneath what the heck did i do? what's up with the name? in the name if the gun, things what you did is for real it sounds exactly when the bull is raging you'll be sick hearing it when you're old hate that you old whore everything went wrong when you couldn't find the hole which leads to your satisfaction

you ain't got balls
you're just a damn prick why? am i high? what will you do when you hate your own reflection? i'll find a way out whenever you're hardly recognised she said i'd leave town if i had to and i will start walking in the pouring rain again
