The spark is my eyes doesn't reflect the way I am now,
The whole institution needs to be decentralized,
Wires of the bunker secretly have been cut out,
Negotiating myself to the fact that I'm wide open,
Practically impossible, logically may be true
Oh shit! I'm through with this!

The fate still remained forgotten,
Up till today I'll pass it on,
I never get to watch the 4 seasons,
As for the day, I'm bound to fall.

I have shitloads of burden right in my head,
The burden of not having my brain to speak,
Here is where I realized that I'm losing touch,
Up to the limit where I will not achieve,
There are thousands of ways for me to break loose,
Not a single way for me to choose right now!

The fate still remained forgotten,
Up till today I'll pass it on,
I never get to watch the 4 seasons,
As for the day, I'm bound to fall.

These are the days I'd come and go,
longing to stay for a while,
And crushed to the deepest hole,

longing to stay for a while.
Can't you hear me anybody?
Over the edge, over the top,
Confiscating our treasured piece

I stopped by to look in a couple of years now,
And all the differences, the contrast of whatever they call it,
It's delicacy of human creation, finalized perfection,
Centre of objection.
Sitting back and fucking up our sanity,
Calling up and back this human prodigy,
We tell them stories oh endlessly,
Every single part of you is a part of me

Have you ever thought of having control of me?
Ever saw the things I used to see?
Ever dreamt of the dreams I used to dream?
Ever sang the song I used to sing?
Are you happy today, are you scared you might fall,
Will you ever stay, are you willing to crawl?
Are you happy today?
Scared you might fall?

I cannot lift my self esteem, and call it sick and tired, who am I, compromise, suicide, where to start, rest my case,
if that's the case it'll stay forever!
