"All She Wants"

It's hard to be
All you want from me
It's hard to be
All she wants
Is a good time
It's hard to see
What you want to be
It's hard to see
All she wants
Is a good time
All she wants
I see your jealousy
Shining in all of their eyes
And there's really no comfort there
Nowhere to hide
And it's hard to be
All that you want me to be
There's a part of me
Waiting for people to rise
All she wants is a good time
All she wants is a good time
All she wants is a good time
All she wants is a good time
