You drone on about the things
I don't care about
Nothing changes, you drone on
I nod my head and smile alot but
You have no intentions to stop
Please go away
(1,2,3,4)

Chorus:
I'm bored
And I don't want to talk to you anymore
I 'm bored
And I don't want to talk to you anymore

You want to tell me how smart you are
And you want to tell me what you think of some guy's art
And how you think it's lame
Well I don't want to be so rude
Cause I know my friends are few
And oh well, I guess it'll stay that way

Chorus

If I were smarter I would invent a machine
That smiles and nods it's head and it looks
Quite like me
But I'm really too dumb for that so
I'll just sit here with my thumb up my ass
And watch you talk to me

I'm bored
And I don't want to talk to you anymore
I'm bored
And I don't want to talk to you
I don't want to act impressed by the things you do
I don't want to talk to you anymore
