All, all my dreams have melted into a bleaker state
Call, call your name but no one ever take the bait
I, try and try, but I can only petty thief
The cries of their stomach pains getting back to me
Why all my thoughts are something I can't comprehend
Yeah, you don't want to know
What I've been doing behind your back at night
You can't know, you can't know
Try, try to take the days as they come to me
Rely, I can't rely on thing that I was to believe

They take and take but I just can't match their speed
They don't understand that I'm running out of steam
All, all my dreams just seem to fall away
Yeah, you don't want to know
What I've been doing behind your back at night
You can't know, you can't know
If you knew what I did at night 8x
Yeah, you don't want to know
What I've been doing behind your back at night
You can't know, you can't know
