When she walked by it was slow motion,
Like she wanted me to notice
That the red dress she was wearing was for me,
Time stopped like the movies, all the people in the city,
They were stuck in freeze frame just so I could see,
I was a skeptic and neurotic,
And every word I thought of never really ever came out right,

We could do anything you want, even dance under the stars,
I'll be Romeo and you'll be Juliet Honey we can burn this city down, play in the ashes on the ground
I don't care cause I'm falling for you

She knows how to make an entrance look alive and so electric,
Like a model she's perfection above the rest,
And the colors that she wore contoured, with every piece of her décor
I'd gladly drink the poison for a kiss
I was a skeptic and neurotic, and every word
I thought of never really ever came out right,

We could do anything you want, even dance under the stars,
I'll be Romeo and you'll be Juliet Honey we can burn this city down, play in the ashes on
the ground
I don't care cause I'm falling for you

And this may be the last time that I see you again,
So for the sake of being foolish
Hello I'll be the boy to hold the door so you can exit,
And I'll think about you while I'm on the road

We could do anything you want, even dance under the stars,
I'll be Romeo and you'll be Juliet Honey we can burn this city down, play in the ashes on
the ground

I don't care cause I'm falling for you

We could do anything you want, even dance under the stars,

I'll be Romeo and you'll be Juliet

Honey we can burn this city down, play in the ashes on the ground

I don't care cause I'm falling for you
