You wrap myself
'round your fingers
'round your legs
And I didn't realise
But thats o.k. with me

Grimace at me
And make me wish
For that we could stay
In that lumpy bed

If I ever was
A stone in your shoe
If I ever was
A stone in your shoe

I guess it was o.k. with you

We don't talk big
Just promise each other
Lots of crap
And float away a bit
Thats o.k. with me

Now you let me down
And I'm just waiting
For something to happen
So come around again
