She said
"my name is kitty
And I've got to sell
Dreams and a pocket full of lies
Dreams and a pocket full of lies"

She said
"my name is kitty
And I've got to sell
Dreams and a pocket full of lies
Look at the sun
With yor eyes closed
And let me be
Your nightmare now"

"hi, it's kitty
I'm here again
The crack in the ceiling
Of your room
Take me in your arms
Just for today

And just for one more time"

We use to fall . . .

She said
"now I'm here
To while away our time
Let's roll along the floor
I'm your creep but anyway
Throw your arms around me"

"my name is kitty
And I've got to sell
Dreams and a pocket full of lies
Love me any minute
When you're with me
And catch me before I fall"
