Got a fence and you don't know two hands that subtlety show this.
I bet on lying stars, do you?
with your cage in your hands I wanna buy it and you don't care what a feel of love that you bring

If you calm down I'll rally round you be your rare machine
If you love mistakes, Miss California
let me bleed for you

Got scared and shed a tear no legs, the puppeteer is gone wooden scars never heal matchbooks, kerosene dead poets coming clean obituaries for your men

If you calm down I'll rally round you
be your rare machine
If you love mistakes, Miss California
let me bleed for you.

If you calm down we can rally round you
be your rare machine
we all love mistakes, Miss California let us bleed for you
