Come on and touch me on my palm reading hand
What is in my future
There's something in this crystal ball that makes me wonder
What is in your plan, what is in your plan

You got me on the head on a pen all black and blue
Licking up my sweet juice
There's something in that finishing blow that made me
wonder
What is in your hand

Yeah, something in my world is dying now
I wish that it was you
Yeah, something in my world is dying now
I wish that it was you

I got a cloud to cover my head when there is no rain
A snake to bite my wounds
There's something in this venom I feel that makes me
Who flood the moon

Yeah, something in my world is dying now
I wish that it was you
Yeah, something in my world is dying now
I wish that it was you

A walk in the park, I'm shot in the head
If you are the devil then where is my bed now
Gotta wake up before it all ends all wrong

I'm afraid of the dark, I'm punching my head
If you are a sponge then I am the sea
I gotta wake up before it all ends all wrong

Yeah, something in my world is dying now
I wish that it was you
Yeah, something in my world is dying now
I wish that it was you

I wish that is was you

I wish that is was you
I wish that it was you
