You can't tell, but we're starting this all over
It's me if it wasn't you
We're different but it all feels like the same
What you didn't know is
All this time I never gave up on makin' it up top
Of everything I wanna do
Is there anything you want to say?

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
It's like, every time I really care I lose it all
What you didn't know is,
I've been misleading,
Mistakes keep repeating
All I've been living for is falling
(Falling, yeah! )

On and on, singing you all the symptoms
I forgot it,
How to create the sparks that've come and gone
What you didn't know is
All this time I never gave up on makin' it on top
Of everything I wanna do
Is there anything you want to say?

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
It's like, every time I really care I lose it all
What you didn't know is,
I've been misleading,
Mistakes keep repeating
All I've been living for is falling
(Falling, yeah! )

I hit the ground!
Ready!
I'm searching for the answer!

If only we knew everything about it...

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
It's like every time I really care, I lose it all
What you didn't know is,

I've been misleading,
Mistakes keep repeating
All I've been living for is falling
