You, yeah you
Suddenly find yourself
Stuck in the life you're living

Truth, yeah it's the truth
But not the one you want
You see what you've been missing

So many choices
Make up your mind

Hey, it's not too late
To find your way, way
Go, just let go
Of what you're holding on to
Start a new beginning, beginning

Road, now take this road
You've got it in your sights
It's time to start believing

These empty spaces
Take your life back

Hey, it's not too late
To find your way, way
Hey, don't be afraid
To find your way, way

Hope turned into disappointment
You'll find a way
Just take control

Overcome and don't ignore it
Or someday soon you'll see
That you've got nowhere else to go

You, yeah you
Live the life you want

Hey, it's not too late

To find your way, way
Hey, don't be afraid
To find your way, way

It's not too late so don't think twice
(Hey, find your way)
You're here today, don't waste your life
(Today)
'Cause once around is all you get
(Don't be afraid)
You'll see how great we all became
(Find your way)
So forget what always brought you down
(Find your way)
Now make the journey all around
(It's not too late)
It's up to you and up to change

Take your life back
Take your life back now
