I've fought for long
and I've promised to learn not to live
connected with you
drugging the world
So you're in control
deciding our future before we are born.

So something should be done and we've just begun our way to stay awake
and starting today
we'll patch their mistakes and like a wave
we're ending your disaster

Our lives
controlled by other minds decide not to fall(not to fall)
alone it's easy to let go together we stand tall(we stand tall)

And to patch their past mistakes can't take another day
I'm singing loud
I'm standing proud
cause it's what I believe in

Our lives

decide not to fall(not to fall)
alone it's easy to let go
together we stand tall(we stand tall)

I've fought for long
and i've promised to
learn not to live
connected with you
drugging the world
So you're in control
deciding our future before we are born

Our lives
alone it's easy to let go together we stand tall(I stand tall)

we stand tall
(I stand tall)
we stand tall
(I stand tall)
we stand tall
