You can't tell, but we're starting this all over
It's me if it wasn't you
We're different but it all spills out the same
What you didn't know is
All this time I never gave it up on making up time for everything I wanna do
Is there anything you wanna say?

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
It's like every time I really care I lose it all
What you didn't know is
I've been misleading
Mistakes keep repeating
All I've been living for is falling
(Falling yeah!)

On and on, singing you all the symptoms
I forgot it now
I do create the sparks if come and gone
What you didn't know is
All this time I never gave it up on making up time of everything I wanna do

Is there anything you want to say?

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
It's like, every time I really care I lose it all
What you didn't know is
I've been misleading
Mistakes keep repeating
All I've been living for is falling
(Falling yeah!)

I hit the ground
Running
I'm searching for the answer

If only we knew everything about it

Why does everything I touch just fall apart?
It's like every time I really care I lose it all
What you didn't know is

I've been misleading
Mistakes keep repeating
All I've been living for is falling
(Falling yeah!)
