They say I seem diffrent now
Hope I'm wiser anyhow
I've had some time to learn a thing or two
I know the change has done me good
But I don't feel liek I wish I would
Sometimes I miss Who I was With you
Everytime your name comes up
I just smile don't sat too much
A button's pushed my heart gets stuck again
I pray it's juat a passing thought
'Cause we both know we're better off
But sometimes I miss who i was with you
Stormy days and sleepless nights
Sometimes we even got it right

Can't believe what we put each other through
In spite of all our chemistry
Something things just aren't meant to be
Sometimes I miss Who I was with you
Everytime your name comes up
I just smile don't sat too much
A button's pushed my heart gets stuck again
I pray it's juat a passing thought
'Cause we both know we're better off
But sometimes I miss who i was with you
But sometimes I miss who i was with you
