Unlighted shadow, fall below my footstep
So I can hide the punishment you eject
Don't scare away the one that truly loves me
Unlighted shadow, fall below me now

Somewhere, there's a warm light
Glowing from the inside
I will hang my eyes upon the sun

Crooked finger never will be straighter
I spread my wings, but I'm nothing like a bird
The fear that lives is the only thing that's moving
The routine of an ordinary love

Somewhere, there's a warm light
Glowing from the inside
I will hang my eyes upon the sun

Somewhere, there's a bright sign
Radiating what's right
I will hang my eyes upon the sun

Fog of the night
King of the fatalist demise
Waiting in line

Somewhere, there's a warm light
Glowing from the inside
I will hang my eyes upon the sun

I will hang my eyes upon the sun
I will hang my eyes upon the sun
