Its the chance of a lifetime
And tonight is the right time
Its the chance of a lifetime

Yeow

Its the chance of a lifetime
And tonight is the right time
Its the chance of a lifetime

Its the chance of a lifetime
And tonight is the right time
Its the chance of a lifetime
Don't you let it slip away

Now don't you turn and look away
Or your the one thats gonna say
I had it right in front of me
But I'm the one that didn't see
You think about it yesterday
Before you know its today
You may not get another chance
Can't find love take romance
Its the chance of a lifetime
And tonight is the right time
Its the chance of a lifetime
Don't you let it slip away

Oh it takes two
And baby me and you

Now I know what you came here for
Your looking for a overlord
I know it means a lot to you
I'm going through the same thing too
Tell me do you think its right
You count the days you count the nights
Here's the way its gonna be
I'll take you you take me

Its the chance of a lifetime
And tonight is the right time

Its the chance of a lifetime
Don't you let it slip away
