Got no time,
Got no mind,
For the line in my life,
No time to think,
Time for sleep now,
Time to sink way into the blue deep.

Got no time,
Got no mind,
For the line in this life,
No time to think,
Time for sleep now,
Time to sink way into the blue deep.

So watch your time,
Time the sound,
Let it spill quietly from your hand,
Oh and the time is at hand when all things under the sky go free of time,
The time is passing you by,
I've got no time.
And I am drifting,
Yes I am drifting.

Remember when you were only a child,
Remember when you were only a child,
Remember when you were only a child,
And start to see with your blue mind,
And start to see with your blue mind,
Don't be afraid of what you find,
No, don't be afraid of what you find.
(It's not that bad)
Cause I am drifting,
Yes, I am drifting.

Slowly, slowly, I am drifting,
(Slowly, slowly, I am drifting)
Slowly, slowly, I am drifting,
(Slowly, slowly, I am drifting)
Yes, slowly, slowly, I am drifting.
