Use to seeing black and white never really in between waiting for the love of my life to come in to my dreams everything of shaves of grays never really blues or green someone in my life worth living for someone who could help me learn to see all the beauty that is waiting their for me

Chorus:

You, you put the blue back in the sky you put the rainbow in my eye a silver lining in my prayers and now thers color every where, you put the red back in the rules just when I need it the most you came along to show you care and now theirs color everywhere

My life is so predictable never ever misteries when ever since you shined the light all of that was history now I have a hand to hold and a reason to believe needed someone else worth living for someone who could help me learn to see all the beauty that is waiting their for me

=Repeat chorus=

Left those hazy days behind me never to return again now theirs just a fading memory and baby it's all so clear to see the beauty that is waiting their for me

=Repeat chorus=
