People try to tell me that is crazy.
You and I will never mean to be.
Don't believe they know, and even if it's so.
I'm falling anyway, no matter what they say.

reff:

Apart of me, has taking me by the hand.
The world can see, still they can't understand.
Why can't they understand.
My heart has a mind of it's own.
Right or wrong it's gonna do,
only what it feels it's true.
I'll follow it wherever it goes.
Anywhere it leads me too.
My heart has a mind of it's own.

Maybe we won't always be together.
Maybe it's the last of a thousand years.
Ain't nobody knows, and even if they did.
It wouldn't matter now I love you anyhow.
