I said, "you shouldn't do it if you don't know what you're getting into"
She said I shouldn't worry about a thing cause she knows which way to go

And everytime they wanted more, she gave in
And everytime they told her what is in
She believed every word

She never said no
Now she's on the radio
She got her 15 minutes
And now she's all alone

She never said no
Now she's on the radio
She got her 15 minutes
But was it worth going so low

I said, "girl don't do it if you have any doubts about it"
She said that I'm just slowing her 'cause she's on the way to the top

And everytime they wanted more, she gave in
And everytime they told her what is in
She believed every word

She never said no
Now she's on the radio
She got her 15 minutes
And now she's all alone

She never said no
Now she's on the radio
She got her 15 minutes
But was it worth going so low

She lost her self-control, to get on the centerfold
But there was no price, at the end of the rainbow
She lost her self-control, to get on the centerfold
But she can't take it, can't make it on her own

She never said no
She never said no
She never said no
Now she's on the radio
She got her 15 minutes
And now she's all alone

She never said no
Now she's on the radio
She got her 15 minutes
But was it worth going so low

She lost her self-control, to get on the centerfold
But there was no price, at the end of the rainbow
She lost her self-control, to get on the centerfold
But she can't take it, can't make it on her own
