"Heart Of Stone"

I left my soul behind
I grew my conscience blind Loved my self too much to handle the truth

I had to ease my blues
I turned my back on you
I feel no pain

I have no fears
But still i feel i'm Loosing touch with...

life...For i'm trough, i'm alone
inside my heart of stone
And it's you, it's you
Inside my heart of stone

I felt so bad for so long
I thought my heart would grow strong But all my hope was buried with your goodbyes

I had to ease my blues
I turned my back on you
I feel no pain

I have no fears
But still i feel i'm Loosing touch with...

life...For i'm trough, i'm alone
inside my heart of stone
And it's you, it's you
Inside my heart of stone
