Reflection unharmed
Cold stares of the strangers
Are like a mirror into my life
Frozen and undermined
No longer can I
Remember the last time
I was afraid for something
I chose to give up on everything

It's all the same
On a ordinary day
I'm in my place
In my disgrace
Nothing' s changed
It's an ordinary day
Myself to live for
No one and no cause to die for

Like yesterday
Today I disguise the way
I resent every breath we waste
Every time I choose to collaborate
Go with the flow
Refuse the see signs
That we're treading the ground we live on
Into a wasteland of American dreams

It's all the same
On a ordinary day
I'm in my place
In my disgrace
Nothing' s changed
It's an ordinary day
Myself to live for
No one and no cause to die for

It's all the same
On a ordinary day
I'm in my place
In my disgrace
Nothing' s changed
It's an ordinary day
