"Wild And Violent"

Limping away creeping out
My softer side left me unsatisfied

Fraction of will keeps us apart
Our identities became compromised

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight
One warning before I crumble

You get confused your self-esteem
Got tangled up in her misery

Obsession has a tendency
Of leaving marks on your dignity

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight
One warning before I crumble
Save yourself, I'm on my own again
My wild and violent mind for company

Now I don't wanna be
I don't wanna lose my sanity I'd rather be alone
Away from you
Now I don't wanna be
A trace of what I used to be I'd rather go alone
And leave you here

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight
One warning before I crumble

I'm on myself, I'm on my own tonight
One warning before I crumble
