"Worlds Collide"

I'm not my mind, I'm not my skin
I'm all about instinct

Don't care about science, you don't care about faith
They don't know what you're feeling

You came like a hurricane, without a warning
You put me through heaven and hell

But when did you realize I see through your lies
I see what you're made of

We're alike but still we fight

It doesn't matter what I say or do
I'll never satisfy you
It doesn't matter if I win or lose
I'll always let you down
Our worlds collide
But you'd never leave
'Cause you're just as bad as me

We're moving in circles but we're just passengers
On this journey

Destiny takes us unlike we planned
We cannot hide from it

We're alike but still we fight

It doesn't matter what I say or do
I'll never satisfy you
It doesn't matter if I win or lose
I'll always let you down
Our worlds collide
But you'd never leave
'Cause you're just as bad as me
