

Low "La La Song"

Visit "La La Song" on MotoLyrics.com

All these years you've been speaking without breathing
Spinning closer to the sun
Had your way with an unsuspecting public
Little threads are all it takes

La, la, la

I have learned all your secrets, so familiar
I know where you lay your head
Fear of God and a disappointing father
Holds the hand around your neck
La, la, la

Sometimes I could just choke myself with laughter
Sometimes everything's so true
So when you come down from your death-defying labors
I'll still be in love with you

La, la, la
