A heart that won't burst
And lips that don't thirst
I thought of you first

My love is for free, my love
My love is for free
My love is for free, my love
My love is for free

The breath of a bird
A voice never heard
But you knew every word

My love is for free, my love
My love is for free

My love is for free, my love
My love is for free

The dream is enough
The price is too much
But it's nothing to us

My love is for free, my love
My love is for free
My love is for free, my love
My love is for free
