So dizzy I can't close my eyes
So love sick I wanna be with you tonight
So desperate I think I'll hit the bars
So tired of not having you in my arms

I'll take a friend of yours out to dinner
Then I'll take off all her clothes and look for you in her
A 100 blouses come undone, I look for you in everyone
I touch so much that I go numb, I look for you in everyone

The drugs don't work I can't get high
But that don't mean that I won't try
Another night of absent flesh
Another night of restlessness

I'll take a friend of yours out to dinner
Then I'll take off all her clothes and look for you in her
A 100 blouses come undone, I look for you in everyone
I touch so much that I go numb, I look for you in
everyone

99 lovers to go, I may never feel the whole
98 lovers and I still don't feel satisfied
Let everyone come, everyone come
Everyone come, everyone

A 100 blouses come undone, I look for you in everyone
I touch so much that I go numb, I look for you in
everyone
Everyone, everyone
(A 100 blouses come undone, come undone)
Everyone
(A 100 blouses come undone, come undone, come undone)
