Warmer Wind (christodal/seefried)

She lives alone, but she don't want to
She walks along the avenue
She's a little girl and a woman, too
I'm gonna break her heart - that's a thing I do

There's a warmer wind and I can feel it
Calling me again
I'm moving on
I'm moving on
I'm moving on

I got so high, was falling down
But I didn't cry 'til I hit the ground
Then I said goodbye and I'm leaving town

There's a warmer wind and I can feel it
Calling me again
I'm moving on
I'm moving on
I'm moving on

Don't follow me now, 'cause I'm already gone
Say that you'll stay 'til dawn

There's a ring around the moon tonight
And I think I've found me another light
So I'm hanging on 'cause I know it's right.

There's a warmer wind and I can feel it
Calling me again
I'm moving on
I'm moving on
I'm moving on
