"Life After Love"

I found my place
In a fairytale of thought
And all along
I thought I'd make it on my own.
To live outside of dreams
Meant giving into seasons, oh no
It's such a cost to let go
Life, it's not as high as love

In between reality and dreams
Is the fight of my will again
Before they catch me
I'm gonna give myself away
And show you
Life after love

I always lived inside of my own head
And all along, I'd never make it on my own.
I'll keep a picture on the inside of my jacket to stay in touch
Because I still feel so much
Life, it's not as high as love

In between the black and blue of dreams
Is a fight
Before they catch me
I'm gonna give myself away
And show you
Life after love
Life after love
Life after love

So they don't catch me
I'm gonna give myself away
And hold on to life after love
