Please, just leave me alone
I'm all that I need
Please, go away with yourself,
I know that it burns
It's best

Separate peace,
Honey leave me alone
I'm living just fine on my own
And the more that we try, it always just ends with goodbye

So go back,
Come to midtown, your driver knows the way
He's tryin' to reach her waiting,
The silver shines the way

The green lights turn to red,
All the streets set in my head
Changing all of the things I just said

Shot down wasted send you on your way
Shake down rake me should of let you stay

Shot down wasted send you on your way
Shake down rake me should of let you stay

I got my way,
Woke up with a smile, I'm all by myself for a while
When you left me last night,
I know that it burns its alright

So go back,
Come to midtown, your driver knows the way
He's tryin' to reach her waiting,
The silver shines the way

The green lights turn to red,

All the streets set in my head
Changing all of the things I just said

Shot down wasted send you on your way
Shake down rake me should of let you stay

Shot down wasted send you on your way
Shake down rake me should of let you stay

Shot down wasted send you on your way
Shake down rake me should of let you stay

Shot down wasted send you on your way
Shake down rake me should of let you stay
