Take a morning pee; Drop some LSD ; And We'll go trippin' around china town We'll get our morning buzz ; Little cup of love ; so safely sound, freshly gound

These things mean more to me now then anything, anything
These things mean more to me now then anything,
anything
Ever did before

Smoke behind the church, little fascist jerks; Remind me of our common cause To buy a duffel trunk, Kill a nazi punk ; And We'll go bury him in the back yard

This spring is gonna be hard on everyone, everyone
This spring is gonna be hard on everyone, everyone

The small words of encouragement the small hours of the night the small wonder you feed my discipline feed my 20 000 reasons to fight the small change in your pocket the small victory songs the small steps in the right direction make more sense then 1 000 big ones in the wrong

Hey Villaseñor, teach me to ignore the poison; Running through my veins Little dirty girl, spinning like the world; indifferent, strange, pocket change

This spring is gonna be hard on everyone, everyone
This spring is gonna be hard on everyone, everyone
