In Amber

In amber, a document
Every hour that we've spent and won't get back
So learn to fail without regret
Lay to rest with each breath, with each breath

In amber, a thread
Leave every skin you've shed to use again
In amber, a thread
Suspended but not dead, but not dead

Graced with which that we deserve

In amber, a thread
Leave every skin you've shed to use again
In amber, a thread
Suspended but not dead, but not dead

Graced with which that we deserve
So graced with which that we deserve

Graced with which that we deserve
So graced with which that we deserve

Graced with which the crown reserves
So graced with which that we deserve
