"Storm Before The Calm"

Lift up your heads
To see an azure canvas
Splattered red
The tempest's eye
Has filled the sky
But if you believe
Zero hour is just
A new day's eve
You have been warned
It's just the storm
Before the calm
All in the name of liberty
In the end it shall deliver you
Deliver me from evil arms
It's just the storm
Before the calm
Lift up your hearts
We are subjects in life
Imitating art
The time has come
We wait as one
And if you believe
We can weather all upheavals
In unity
It's just the storm
One last storm
Before the calm
All in the name of liberty
In the end it shall deliver you
Deliver me from evil arms
It's just the storm
Before the calm
