'In my mind
Ive got it all figured out
But the head
Does not always rule the heart
And I try to place him
Out of body and soul
Just when I thought I'd made it
His images start taking their toll
On me
I feel his memory haunting me
Time and Again
I feel weak because [Chorus]
Every time I see your picture I cry
And I try to get over you
One more time because
Every time I see your picture I cry
Oh I cry
There you rest inside the walls
Of a flame
Hurts so bad
I can almost feel your eyes
Calling out my name and so
Out of body and soul
Youre everywhere I go
Illusion or reality I don't know
I feel your memory haunting me
Time and again
I feel weak because
[Chorus] to end'
